

Mike and Gingi

Playing with Gingi Lahera has been one of my all time favorite projects. Gingi is a special talent and one of the best singers on the local scene. Gingi Lahera has been performing with jazz pianist Bradley Williams for over a decade and has 4 years as a featured vocalist with Brazilian guitarist/singer Paulinho Garcia. Gingi can go from the deep, poetic songs of Milton Nascimento to the suggestive tunes of Cole Porter. Our repertoire consists of Brazilian songs and American jazz standards.

Our debut CD, "The Night's Womb and The Morning Sun" is now available. Go to CD Baby to get your copy now. Go quick because they are selling fast.
